BAD TRACK AND MODERATE RACERS IN AC-TION LEAD TO LIGHT ATTENDANCE.

Goldproof Scores from Comedienne and Avaunteer in the Main Race-Hammock Boy Wins the Race for Two-Year-Olds.

New Orleans, La., February 6.—Probably no poorer card has been offered for decision this season that which was decided this afternoon. track was sticky and it required an extraordinarily sturdy horse to run in the going successfully. Jockeyship was also a great factor in deciding most

Only three favorites landed in front, but some of the winners, notably Hammock Boy in the open ing race, received steady support and caused the layers to sustain big losses.

P. Dunne and his following lost a good opportunity to make a handsome winning with his recent pur chase Aunt Rose. Lack of knowledge as to her mud-running ability caused him to let her go unbacked and she won the third race in decisive fashion. La Souer; the favorite in this race, was kept in the worst going up to the stretch turn, where Ott let her head loose and stumbling she unseated her rider. At that the filly did not show her early good form and has probably not sufficiently recovered from her late spell of sickness. Goldproof far outclassed the other four starters in the feature race at three-quarters and won as his rider pleased.

The closing race was a spirited duel between Gambriaus and Heart of Hyacinth. The pair were leaders almost from the start and fought it out stride for stride in the stretch. By virtue of being in the better going Gambrinus managed to last long enough to win by a head.

Cock Sure upset the calculations of the wise set by beating Rappahannock in easy style. .

Another drubbing was given the layers in the fifth race when Amberjack, a campaigner from the half-mile tracks and ridden by Kohn, also a product of the "merry-go-round" and recently reinstated, came away to a handy victory.

Anne McGee clearly demonstrated that she does not fancy heavy going when she failed to be a contender in the opening race, which was won by Hammock Boy. C. T. Brownfield, the latter's owner, won handsomely by the colt's victory, among wagers was one ticket of $4,000 to $500 with bookmaker Fontelieu.

Barney Schreiber's Lotus Brandt was much the best of the poor field that went to the post in the second race and won easily.

I. A. Cella was among today's arrivals. He disclaimed that his present visit has any significence to the racing situation here. He will remain everal weeks.

Today's attendance was again a small one and the speculation in the betting enclosure was light.

BERK'S STATEMENT OF HIS CASE.

Benny Berk, the bookmaker who purchased George Boles' membership button in the 'Mets' after the latter was ruled off the eastern tracks last year and who has just been warned away from the cadia track charged with working in collusion with jockey Grand, also placed under the ban, says that he is a victim of a conspiracy. He denies the charges lodged against him, says that he not even know Grand and accuses two of his former clerks, discharged by him for alleged irregulari ties of framing up a job on him. Berk says that the father of one of these clerks threatened that his son would make startling disclosures unless he was restored to his position. This Berk says he refused to do, whereupon the charges were made to presiding Judge Hamilton. The latter took up the sheets on several races and after inspect ing them decided that Berk and Grand were both Unless reinstated neither will be allowed to operate on the eastern tracks.

Restrict Riding of Martin to Horses of Pasadena Stable-Achieve Makes Opponents Look Cheap.

Los Angeles, Cal., February 6.—The poor showing nade by Creston yesterday aroused the suspicion of Judge Hamilton that all was not right. He had a number of bookmakers' sheets taken up and brought to him and after a thorough investigation ordered that the future entry of Creston be refused and suspended E. Martin, who rode the horse, riding for anybody but his employers, the Pasadena Secretary E. C. Smith offered a good card today the result being that the largest crowd of the was present.

The victory of Edwin T. Fryer was a big surpris to form players, but a few wiseacres were said to have won handsomely on him.

The nineteen books did a big business Connie M., well ridden by Buxton, closely followed Arthur Hyman to the stretch, then moved into an easy lead and finished going away. Black Dress, always a contender, outstayed the pacemaker in a hard drive. Achieve won her fourth successive race when she spreadeagled her opponents in the running of second race. Foreguard ran a good race and fin-ished an easy second. Palo Alto and Apto Oro were fighting it out at the end for third place, which the former secured by a narrow margin.

Canardo, on the strength of his recent winning form, was heavily backed to repeat today, but was forced to a hard drive at the end to win from Merlingo.

Edwin T. Fryer surprised the talent by taking the handicap at a long price. Light Wool was second and Colonel Jack third. Mark Antony II, and Colonel White were the leaders to the last furlong, where they tired.

Kinsman won the long distance race from the odds-on favorite, Sam Bernard. Perry Wickes momentarily had the lead in the stretch, but tired in the closing strides.

Jockey Dugan rode two winning favorites again today and his followers were in high glee. Ross also finished in front with Edwin T. Fryer and Kinsman. Miller succeeded in riding a winner in the last race.

Jockey George Mountain arrived here last night from New Orleans and will probably remain here during the rest of the meeting as the guest of his brother in Los Angeles. Mountain says he will go east in the spring and make an effort to secure reinstatement, as he declares he has done nothing warranting suspension.

READY FOR ANY SITUATION IN NEW YORK.

Large Sums Being Expended in Improvement of Tracks-Field Books May Be Abolished.

New York, February 6 .- While the horsemen here in the east are taking considerable interest in what is going on at Albany, they are significantly cheerful and looking forward to a fine season of The racing associations too, are going ahead with their plans just as if there never was an effort being made to wipe out the sport. Yester day the State Racing Commission filed notices that licenses had been granted to nine tracks that do business in the state. At Sheepshead Bay they are putting the finishing touches to about $150,000 worth

Gravesend is also being renovated and the Empire City Trotting Club will spend about $75,000 on improvements before the meeting at Yonkers opens

The people are prepared for trouble even if the anti-racing bill fails. They realize that an attack will be made on the present system of bookmaking and that betting may have to be carried on as it was at Benning last year. This is the so-called perambulating system. It worked all Benning, but it would cause a lot of trouble in New York, because the crowds are larger and there will be a greater array of bookmakers.

Since the track people are taking the anti-racing fight seriously, many suggestions have been made to keep the sport above water if the present fight fails. Some people believe that the so-called "Dol-lar Field" should be done away with "This coclosure, it is maintained, is what brings an ele ment to the track that are not financially strong mough to speculate. The field does attract people who bet away their small earnings or savings that can ill afford to lose. Wipe out the field, say the people who offer this suggestion and make the general admission to the track $5. Then giv the bookmakers to understand that "small betting" indulged in. This would drive away the niker While it is true that attendance would suffer, still the increased admission would offset this in a measure.

NINE NEW YORK TRACKS LICENSED

Albany, N. Y., February 6.-The State Racing Committee yesterday filed with the secretary of state notice that licenses had been granted the following racing associations for the holding this year of running, trotting and steeplechase races in this state:

Westchester Racing Association, Jockey Club, Brooklyn Jockey Club, Brighton Beach Racing Association, Saratoga Association for the Improvement of Breed of Horses, Queens County Jockey Club, Metropolitan Jockey Club, Empire City Trotting Club and Buffalo Racing Association.

Running of the Summer Handicap and South African Derby Described-Heavy Totalizer Betting.

Racing flourishes in South Africa and it now being summer there, is in full progress. betting there is by the "totalizer" system, Paris Mutuel betting under another name. It is quite evident the percentage going to the racing associations pays more than fees from bookmakers would. In this there is quite pertinent food for thought by the managers of many American race tracks. A letter from Johannesburg of December 30, to London Sportsman, gives some interesting information concerning the running of some of the principal South African races and of the big sums wagered through the machines. In part the letter reads as follows: "Never in the history of horse racing in the Transvaal has there been greater interest shown by the public in the big event of a quarterly neeting than was the case with the Summer Handicap at Turffontein, which was run on Boxing Day, There has never been a Johannesburg Handicap for which so many owners fancied their horses. Mr. Lazarus, the owner of Baluarte, winner of the Johannesburg Spring Handicap, whose horse had beer favorite from the moment the betting opened, was confident to the last of winning. Sir Daniel gave owner, Mr. Solomon, equal confidence, Hy, Nourse's Formia was well fancied by all his connections, whilst Daria Noor, Mome, Tirkvallen and La Reina were all thought well of by their Mr. Abe Bailey was present to see his trainer win the big event of the year and to witpess his own representative's victory in the South African Derby. All credit is due to F. W. Murray for the splendid way be got Formia fit, for when the mare first came into his hands, she went wrong altogether and for months he could not get her right, but, with constant nursing, he succeeded.

"The parade was a pretty one, the only two absent being Bijou d'Or and Daria Noor, they having been led to the post. The only horse to wear blinkers was Sir Daniel. Mr. Haliwell got the field off to capital start with the exception of Bijou d'Or, which refused to join and was left. the first to show in front, but in the first furlong gave place to Terlinga. Going up the hill Terlinga still led from Sir Daniel, Baluarte, and Bilton Park, Formia being last. Turning into the straight Terlinga gave way to Baluarte, with Sir Daniel close up, Formfa, which had commenced to take up her ground, taking a position in the middle of the course. Coming out of the dip Sir Daniel led from Daria Noor and Tirkvallen, with Formia next The favorite, Baluarte, showed signals of distress and commenced to drop back. Formia was level with Sir Daniel a furlong from home, and, drawing out, won easily by two lengths, Sir Daniel just saving second place from Mome by a head. Daria Noor, a head behind Mome, was fourth. The race, which was a mile and a furloug, was done in the good time of 1:541 Baluarte started favorite at 2 to 1 against: Formia started at 7 to 2 against. The only trainer to leave the course with two winners to his credit was F. W. Murray. During the day $159,975 passed through the totalizator. mia carried 90 pounds, Sir Daniel 134 pounds and

"The South African Derby of 1,000 sovereigns atpost. This was the first race of its kind in South Africa, and naturally evoked great interest. race was for three-year-olds sired in South Africa 100 sovereigns of the stakes to go to the breede of the winner if nominated by him whilst his property; 100 sovereigns to the second and sovereigns to the third horse. One mile and a half. As the most successful South African breeder, it was perhaps to be expected that Mr. Abe Bailey would draw first blood in a race of this kind, an this proved to be the case, his Colesberg-bred filly, Diana, by Uniform, out of Queen of the Chase ridden by Bullock, winning the race from the gray colt, Buffon, ridden by McGlynn, with nearly length in hand. The filly proved to be a capital stayer and was well ridden by Bullock, who though under a cloud for months past has recovered his laurels during the meeting under review, his handican success with Formia being his fifth on the ohannesburg course. The time of Diana over the twelve-furlong course was 2:40. Buffon, the second horse, is owned by Mr. D. Talbot, whilst Sky Screen, owned by Mr. J. W. Henwood and ridden by Yar ell, was third. Practically every breeder in South Africa was represented in this race, and therefore Mr. Abe Bailey is to be most heartily congratulated on this important victory. His success was very popular, and he received the congratulations of Lord Selborne and the O. R. C. governor, Sin Hamilton Goold Adams, who were present and witnessed the race and also the big handicap. As in cricket, we shall soon expect to see South South African bred horses figuring in some of the classic fixtures at home. I somehow think such animals will not disgrace themselves.

"On Saturday last the Goldfields Handicap was de cided. The race drew ten runners. The day was again a fine one, but the attendance was very poor. Aura, which won a minor event on the first day of the meeting and paid out eighty odd pounds on the totalizator, easily accounted for the race in winning by a half length from Baluarte. for the race was 2:374, the distance being a mile and a half. Nineteen thousand six hundred and seventy-nine pounds passed through the totaliza-tor."

VETERAN OF MANY RACES OUTSTAYS PLAU-SIBLE IN A HOT FINISH.

Oakland Speculators Favored with Good Fortune-Bill Curtis Takes a Race After Many Defeats-Fred Bent Wins.

Oakland, Cal., February 6.—The local race-going public's remarkable series of betting successes yesterday at Oakland continued practically without a break today despite the fact that favorites only heavily and persistently backed, the successful second choices, Prince of Orange and Fred Bent, really attracting the bulk of the support in their respective races. Bill Eaton's in the second race was the only grumbled about defeat during the afternoon. R. Davis, his jockey, got away badly on this particular favorite and was in a secure pocket throughout the final quarter. To some it seemed as if he could have extricated the Schreiber colt from that embarrassing position had he exercised a little horse sen

The program was attractive and evenly balanced and despite an absence of stake features, the closing race engaged the best class of horses and was won by Fred Bent in decisive fashion. Belmere, a light of other days, received plenty of support, but failed ignominiously among the kind opposed to him on this occasion.

The weather was good and a very good off-day crowd witnessed some excellent and satisfactory

Pajaroita is now in the stable of H. G. Bedwell. Bedwell bought T. P. Schwartz' half interest in the Rey Del Sierras-Aunt Bird gelding yesterday for $1,000. W. E. Lemmon still retains his interest in the horse, but Bedwell will train and race him. Schwartz was obliged to sell his interest on account of the ruling recently enacted against him as a result of the alleged pulling of the horse in the Vallejo Handicap December 7.

Clamor, Red Leaf and others of the Keene string are expected from Arcadia today. Dr. Rowell is sending back some of the Williams horses in the same car, but others to take their places will be shipped to Arcadia at once.

LESBIA THRIVING BUT NOT INCREASING.

No doubt it will be interesting to readers generally to hear news as to the progress of Sir Daniel Cooper's undefeated filly, Lesbia, the more so as she was turned out of training after she had closed her two-year-old account by winning the Middle Park Plate, says Vigilant in London Sportsman. Her period of unrestrained freedom will, I understand, be brought to a close today, for she is under and presumably will take her old place in Blackwell's string. According to all accounts the thick-set daughter of St. Frusquin and Glare has benefited by her "holiday" in all respects except regards growth in height. I have not seen her, but am informed on the best of good authority that she does not exceed fifteen hands one inch, so that unless she soon makes a start she will be meeting some of her opponents in the classic races at a big disadvantage as far as regards size. Rumor has it that Sir Daniel Cooper has a fine three-year old colt in Petrillo, by Gallinule, out of Float, but the most that can be known of him outside the stable is that he is well grown, good looking and fine mover. Sir Daniel's classic nominations for this year are: Two Thousand Guineas, Petrillo: Thousand Guineas, Lesbia; the Derby, Lesbia and Petrillo; the Oaks, Lesbia and Bobbin; St. Leger, Lesbia and Petrillo.

DEATH OF A TRULY GREAT HORSE.

Lexington, Ky., February 6.—It is reported here that The Bard, the twenty-five-year-old stallion by Longfellow—Brademante, by War Dance, has been humanely destroyed at Chesterbrook Stud at Berwyn,

The Bard served in the stud here for several years in charge of William Steele, but became so infirm spring that permission was asked of Major E. B. Cassatt to put him out of the way. His owner, however, decided to have him shipped to Chester-In his four years on the turf The Bard won twenty-seven races, all of them stakes and twelve of them won in succession and his total winnings amounted to $80,895. As a sire in the stud at Chasterbrook and afterward in Kentucky. was not as successful as he was as a race hors and the best of his get was Gold Heels.

RACING AT THE CHILEAN CAPITAL.

Arthur Ruhl, who contributes his observations of Chileans in Santiago, their capital, to Scribners Magazine for February, dwells at some length upon their sports and with regard to racing there, says Chileans are horsemen, too, and great breeders of horses-even the Peruvians import their best stock from their rivals and in the Paseo at Lima, they are Chilean coach horses which drag the victorias round and round the statue of the hero of the war in which Chile defeated Peru. Bull fighting having been abolished in Chile the races, in a way, take its place, and all the town flocks to the 'Club Hippico' on Sunday afternoon. It is pretty place, with the snow-capped Cordilleras in the distance and the paddock and club enclosure with its refreshment tables and trees-larger than the little ginger-bread stand and track at Lima, more polite and winsome than the big Jockey Club of Buenos Ayres.

JOHN E. MADDEN PROSPERED LAST YEAR.

Besides deriving a goodly sum in return for horse old, John E. Madden each year contrives to secure a prominent position in the list of winning owners and 1907 was no exception. With nineteen horses he won $41,825 and when the eastern racing termin ated, only two of the nineteen were unsold, King James and Sally K. King James has been heavily engaged in the most important stakes of this year and it is said that Madden expects him to rank high among the best three-year-olds of 1908. King James and Meelick were Madden's chief money earners last year, Uncle, Dead Gone, Sally K. and Dennis Stafford following in the order of their

NOTES OF THE TURF.

It is said that Richard Dwyer is seriously con sidering the offer to do the starting at Seattle next summer and will announce a definite decision within the next few weeks.

Ex-jockey Charles Delehanty, who rode on the New York tracks fifteen years ago, and was con-sidered a fair rider, when Doggett, Taral, Bergen, Garrison and others were regarded as stars, died last Tuesday at Bath Beach.

Frank Hayes, P. Maguire and A. Steimer, of New York, are the latest arrivals at New Orleans. They are on their way to Oakland, but will watch the racing at the Fair Grounds for several days before proceeding on their journey.

An English sporting paper says: "The toboggan race for the Manchester Bowl, presented by the Duke of Manchester, and run for at Dayos a week or so ago, attracted twenty-three starters. winning bob-sleigh was the Alouette, the Gazeka, carrying the well-known jockeys, J. H. Martin, steerer, and D. Maher, brake, finishing sixth."

Harry Froelich, trainer of the Bohemian Stable, claimed Fairystreet out of the fourth race at Oakland last Thursday from A. F. Dayton for $1,000. When Froelich went to the Dayton barn to get the horse he asked for the loan of a halter. Dayton let him have a halter and also a blanket. "I will bring these things back just as soon as I get the horse over to our barn," said Froelich. "Don't even think of such a thing, my friend," said Day ton. "I have been trying to sell that horse for $700, so I consider that I am now getting about $300 for the bridle and blanket, and that's good enough."

MADIGAN HORSES FOR NEW ORLEANS.

RACING MEN WHO BEGAN WITH TROTTERS

P. Lorillard, James Galway and E. E. Smathers of the Number-Latter's Faith in McChesney.

New York, February 3.—Assuming that the enmies of the turf, who are introducing bills in the legislature which would kill the sport are on the 'level," those who are working to prevent the annihilation of the sport, lost a great opportunity this week. The "Old Glory" sale of trotting and pacing stock, held at the Madison Square Garden, at tracted its usual thousands of visitors from all parts of the country, and a horse which had never been trained sold for $9,000. Others sold for $8,000 and from that down to small figures.

The encouraging feature of the whole sale was the fact that there is any amount of money in the market for the right kind of stock. But even the so-called "culls" found purchasers, men who need them for pleasure driving on the road, for matito me, in scanning the names and residences of the for buyers of these trotters and pacers, to note from what a large area they came. It would have been a convincing argument that horses can be used for ome other purpose besides gambling upon them. One purchaser of an $8,000 stallion is Henry Steers, an engineer by profession, engaged in the stupendous and apparently never-ending work inaugurated by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in and about New York, New Jersey and Long Island several years ago—work which concentrated in this vicinity many splendid specimens of manhood who had grown up in the west, received a college the weight of the weight of the weight of the weight of the big railroad company. An old New Yorker can almost unerringly pick out from a crowd who may be crossing the Thirty-fourth Street ferry, men of this character, some of whom are destined to achieve distinction in their profession.

At least one, Mr. C. L. Harrison, has become a turfman, he being the owner of the colt Alfred Noble, which is named after another engineer of the Pennsylvania system. Now comes Mr. Steers, who recently bought a place at Portchester, which was formerly owned by John H. Shultz, the noted breeder of fast tectors. breeder of fast trotters. Mr. Steers will establish a stud and hopes to produce some fast ones.

It is easily recalled that at least two noted mer of the running turf of past days were at one time equally fond of the trotter. The late Pierre Lor-illard first began to drive road horses for the pleas-ure to be undoubtedly derived, but he was not long in plunging into the more exciting sphere of the galloper, and his career for about thirty years, both in American and England, was one to look back upon with interest. The only man who has thus far won the Derby with an American colt, the late Mr. Lorillard, was in the year 1881 one of the two most popular Americans, the other being Mr. Keene.

So enthusiastic were our countrymen over the triumphs of Iroquois in the Derby and the St. Leger, that the declaration was made that Mr. Lorillard could easily be elected president of the United States, For a long time after 1881 Mr. Lorillard maintained an English stable and resumed again in 1896, after a gap of some years' duration. His remarkable successes for about five years, from 1896 to 1901, achieved with the product of the Rancocas Stock Farm, are matter of record, and attest the great ability of John Huggins, who trained for

Mr. James Galway, who is still alive, I am glad to say, though he appears to have quit active racing, was the owner of the famous St. Julien, a famous bay trotting gelding which dominated that branch of the turf for several years.

Another man who spent a lot of money in a brief period on the running turf after a long connection with the trotters, is E. E. Smathers, whom I frequently meet at the Waldorf. His ownership of McChesney was a source of satisfaction to Mr. Smathers, and the Twin City Handicap of 1903, won by the beautifully proportioned son of Macduff, when he ran the mile and a quarter in 2:043, which has never been beaten in that race, was sufficient vindication of Mr. Smathers' faith in this horse. By the way, Mr. Galway, mentioned above, owned and raced Macduff, sire of McChesney, when that racer was on the turf.

Reference to Mr. Smathers calls to my mind the very unfair treatment which a portion of the New York press administered to him and his trainer, Sam Hildreth, and his undeniably good horse, McChesney. It was at the time that the late John Boden, Jr., then racing secretary of the Brighton Beach Association, offered to add $10,000 to a special race between McChesney and Waterboy. The for-mer was in Chicago at the time, and Sam Hildreth had not then been reinstated by the Jockey Club, the consequence of the row with John Madden. Still, Mr. Smathers scratched McChesney from some important Chicago engagements to accept the Brighton Beach offer, and had his horse brought on here. The first snag was struck when it was ascertained that Hildreth, not having a trainer's license, could not train McChesney. This was overcome by handing the horse over to Frank Taylor, whose wife is a sister of Hildreth's wife.

Next came the news that McChesney had gone lame, and the match could not come off. Scoffers in the press stand asserted that it was never intended to be a match; that McChesney was made use of for advertising purposes, and that he was a "false alarm," anyhow.

Every fair-minded man expressed sympathy with

Mr. Smathers at these insinuations, and he was appreciative of his friends. But deep down in his heart he resolved to show the doubters of the east that they didn't know what they were talking about when they said McChesney was a "four-flusher." The opportunity came in the Twin City of 1903. It was McChesney's second appearance here, he having been defeated by the two-year-old The Minute Man, which broke his leg and was destroyed a few weeks later at Brighton Beach. The Minute Man, ridden by a boy named Higgins, at 92 pounds, fairly flew the first five furlongs in 1:00%, over the Sheepshead Bay mile course. The speed seemed to tangle up McChesney, but he was undoubtedly closing on the two-year-old in the last furlong. This was on September 4. On September 7 McChesney, 129 pounds up, same weight as Hermis, beat him a length and a half in 2:04g, with His Eminence, 100; Douro, 119; Proper, 98; Caugh-nawaga, 111; Injunction, 108; Igniter, 108; Shorthose, 110; Sheriff Bell, 92; Thorneycroft, 92, and Hunter Raine, 112, as the beaten field. Hermis ran the first mile in 1:383, with McChesney always close to him, and in the last furlong McChesney drew out and won easily. He was ridden to perfection by Fuller, who saved ground on all the turns.

It must be said in behalf of Hermis, however, that only two days previously he had run in the mile and a half Century Stakes, won by Waterboy in 2:313, and that for seven furlongs he was pacemaker on that occasion, with such good ones as The Picket (three years old then) and Heno in the race. If he had not run in the Century he would have been a better horse in the Twin City, without a doubt. However, the scoffers who had decried the western horse had no ground to stand on in view of his success in the Twin City.

Mr. Smathers is only one of many rich men who stand ready to invest their money in race horses if they felt certain there would be no adverse legis-lation this winter. As good business men they do not think it well to pay big prices for thorough-breds with a view to winning rich stakes, only to find that with adverse legislation the values of all the added moneys must inevitably be reduced, except where the stakes have already closed.

KELLY HEROIC TREATMENT A FAILURE.

Horsemen wintering in New York in their daily gatherings at the Hoffman House and other favorite esorts where horsemen for years have been in the habit of congregating, when not discussing handicap weights or the racing situation, amuse themselves telling stories. One of them the other day in relating his experiences with different horses said: "Do you remember that mare, Mamie Callan, which Harry Stover had some ten years ago? She was one of the worst run-out propositions that ever wore hair, and for all I know she may have gone into retirement still possessed of the desire to bust through the outside rail at the head of the stretch. "I saw a big cook named Kelly try to cure her of the trick, and it cured him of curing crazy He told Stover that he could keep her in on the stretch turn, and Harry gave him a chance to prove it one morning down at New Orleans. 'When the mare was saddled Kelly armed himself with a hickory buggy spoke, but Stover made no objections, for he knew the mare pretty well, and only heroic treatment could have any possible effect. "Kelly let her step around the turn out of the backstretch in her own fashion, but at about the three-furlong post he clucked to her and punched her with his heels. She had a world of speed and sailed for that stretch corner like a quarter horse. When she hit the corner out she went, and then Kelly got busy with the buggy spoke. hit the mare such a smash between the ears that he

"Well, they picked Kelly up over near the brick barn, and when they looked him over it was about even betting that he belonged in the mergue. He was carried off to the hospital, and all he saw of the races for the rest of the season was an ocea sional dope sheet that the boys carried up to him. "Did it cure the mare? I should say not. She ran out in her next race."
